SANTA FE, NM 87502-5701

The Board of County Commissioners (“BCC”) of Santa Fe County, New Mexico, a political subdivision of the State of New Mexico (“County”) plans to complete a river restoration project and construct a public multi-use trail approximately 8 miles along the Santa Fe River from Frenchy’s Field to the Waste Water Treatment Plant near NM 599. The river restoration and trail will be known as the Santa Fe River Greenway. As part of its planning of the Santa Fe River Greenway, the County requests permission from property owners along the affected segment of the Santa Fe River for Santa Fe County and its agents or contractors to enter a portion of your property where necessary to conduct activities necessary for preliminary inspection and planning development activities for the Santa Fe River Greenway Project. These inspection and planning activities are part of the County’s due diligence in determining what real property or property interests need to be acquired by Santa Fe County for the completion of the Santa Fe River Greenway Project.
