SANTA FE COUNTY FISCAL YEAR 2013 BUDGET

ORGANIZATION BUDGETS

Elected Offices excludes BCC (County Management) and Sheriff's Office (Public Safety)

Resolution 2011-24 which requires that all County Departments transition to a results-accountable/ performance and priority based form of budgeting does not impose that requirement on elected offices at Santa Fe County. For the fiscal year 2013 budget, elected offices were given the option to participate in the results-accountable/performance and priority based methodology or continue to use the base-line method. The only elected office which chose to participate in the results-accountable/performance and priority based budget process was the Sheriff's Office. Because the other elected offices chose not to participate in the new process, information (if provided) utilizes the format that was used in fiscal year 2012.

Assessor's Office

102 Grant Avenue Santa Fe, NM 87501 (505)986-6300

The goal of the Assessor's Office is to distribute the property tax burden, as approved by taxing authorities, correctly and equitably to all taxable property based on its value. The Assessor's Office is responsible for the valuation of property throughout the County for purposes of property taxation. The Assessor's Office accepts reports from property owners, lists and identifies property locations and collects, analyzes and interprets market and cost trends. The Assessor's Office values property in conformance with professional standards of the International Association of Assessing Officers and the laws of the State of New Mexico, and reports on property values to the property owners through the Notice of Value which is distributed annually in April. The Assessor must also certify values to the State of New Mexico by June 15 of each year. Once values are certified by the County Assessor, the State of New Mexico uses that information to establish tax rates for the various taxing authorities. In addition State statute requires the County Assessor to conduct a full re-appraisal of property countywide. This is an enormous undertaking and was initiated in FY 2012 with completion of the re-appraisal in FY 2013.

Clerk's Office

102 Grant Avenue Santa Fe, NM 87501 (505)986-6280

The Clerk's Office strives to be the most productive elections and recording office with the best customer service and the best solutions for conducting elections, recording documents and accessing public records. The Recording Office is responsible for maintaining a perpetual, comprehensive set of public records consisting of all documents appropriately presented for recording. It does so in a manner as to ensure that any member of the public can readily access the information to conduct their personal and business activities with the assurance that their transactions were executed in accordance with the law and, where appropriate, their privacy has been protected. The Bureau of Elections is responsible for providing accurate voter registration files and election canvasses, while conducting elections to ensure that each voter has an opportunity to participate equally in a non-partisan, respectful and professional environment.

Probate Judge

142 West Palace Avenue, 3rd Floor Santa Fe, NM 87501 (505)992-1636

The Probate Judge is responsible for adjudicating probate cases. The nature of this type of case dictates that the process is conducted in a professional and sensitive manner. The Probate Judge is also authorized to perform marriages.

Surveyor 102 Grant Avenue Santa Fe, NM 87501 (505)795-5184

The Surveyor provides expertise to the public as well as county leadership and staff relating to land surveying issues, questions, or clarifications they may encounter. The Surveyor also assists the general public with locating recorded and un-recorded property surveys, performs historical research, answers general survey questions, and interprets and understands legal descriptions. Santa Fe County is the only county in New Mexico that still retains an elected office of County Surveyor.

In the 2011 Legislative Session New Mexico's State Legislature voted to abolish the elected office of County Surveyor. Santa Fe County has the only elected surveyor, thus was the only county impacted by this law. The County Surveyor's term expires at the end of 2012 after which the Surveyor's position will no longer exist.

Treasurer

102 Gant Avenue Santa Fe, NM 87501 (505)986-6450

The Treasurer is the property tax collector and investment officer for Santa Fe County. The Treasurer's Office distributes approximately 60,000 tax bills annually. In addition, the Treasurer's Office distributes 24,000 informational tax bills annually to notify taxpayers who escrow their property taxes. The Treasurer's Office also serves as the "County's Banker" and is responsible for collecting and depositing monies from property tax collections and from all operations of County departments. As the investment officer for the County the Treasurer invests the County's cash reserves as permitted by the County's Investment Policy.

Taxes collected by the Treasurer are distributed to the statutory beneficiaries of the County which include Santa Fe Public Schools, Pojoaque Public Schools, Espanola Public Schools, Moriarty Public Schools, Santa Fe Community College, Edgewood Soil and Water District, and the Eldorado Water and Sanitation District. Approximately 40% of all taxes collected go to the above mentioned beneficiaries and the County receives about 40% of the taxes collected. The Treasurer also collects and distributes taxes for the County's Debt Service, the State's Debt Service, and the Children's Trust. These beneficiaries receive the balance of the taxes collected or approximately 20%.
